Skykitchen restaurant reopens after spring break – and defends its Michelin star for the eleventh time

Berlin, 26 June 2025 – Back above the rooftops of Berlin: after a spring break lasting several months, Skykitchen at Vienna House by Wyndham Andel's Berlin is making an impressive comeback – with two reasons to celebrate: just in time for its reopening, the fine dining restaurant has once again been awarded a Michelin star. For the eleventh time in a row, the Michelin Guide has recognised the outstanding cuisine and overall experience of Skykitchen – a strong sign of quality, consistency and passion.

Skykitchen has been one of Berlin's top restaurants since 2014. Sascha Kurgan, a native Berliner and experienced chef, has been responsible for the culinary signature since 2023. His menus combine regional products with Mediterranean, Asian and French influences – clear, creative and with typical Berlin lightness. The current menu line, 'Voyage Culinaire', takes guests on a culinary journey across several continents – with the city always in view.

Hostess Barbara Merll, awarded 'Berlin Hostess' and 'Maître of the Year', creates the perfect atmosphere. Together with her team – sommelière Sharin Polte, Erik Schelän and Mario Fabian – she stands for professional and warm service. Guests experience relaxed hospitality at the highest level – authentic, and with attention to detail.

'Starting again after a break is always a special moment – the team is highly motivated and our guests are delighted. The fact that we have been able to defend our Michelin star again shows that we are on the right track together,' says Barbara Merll.

Skykitchen is part of the gastronomic outlets of Vienna House by Wyndham Andel's Berlin, which belongs to the Revo Hospitality Group – known for innovative hospitality and high-quality cuisine.

Skykitchen's renewed award comes in a strong year for Berlin's top gastronomy – we warmly congratulate the newly crowned star restaurants Pars, Sawito, Matthias and Loumi on their well-deserved honour.
